Call 811

Everyone has health concerns from time to time. Access to expert health care advice when and where you need it can help you decide how to manage your physical and mental health, and the health of your family.

When you call 811, a registered nurse will be available to speak with you 24/7, 365 days a year. Assistance is offered in English, French and other languages. 811 is a free, secure and confidential health care service available to all Ontarians.

When you call 811, your call will be received by an advisor who will securely and confidentially collect basic information and the reason for your call. You will then be transferred to a registered nurse who will complete a virtual triage assessment and advise you of next steps.
